

Sumner, W. G.—The Financier and the Finances of the American Revolution. 2 vols. 1892.

Zwingli, Huldreich—Selected Works. Ed. by S. M. Jackson. 1901.

MINING DEPARTMENT.

Ball, Sir Robt.—Cause of an Ice Age, 1900.

Cole, G. A. J.—Open Air Studies. 1895.

Geikie, James—Earth Sculpture. 1898.

Hutchinson, H. N.—Autobiography of the Earth. 1891.

Lucas, F. A.—Animals of the Past. 1902.

Wright & Upham—Greenland Icefields. 1896.

H. W. B.

---

—The S. A. E. fraternity gave a delightful dance at their chapter house on Thursday, December 4th. The house was very prettily decorated and the floor was in fine shape. The young ladies present were from Tyrone, Bellefonte and State College.

The patronesses were Mrs. Irving L. Foster, Miss Snyder, Mrs. J. P. Jackson, Mrs. Elton D. Walker, Mrs. J. M. Willard, Mrs. Dr. Wadsworth, Mrs. Wooden, of Tyrone, Mrs. B. Frank Godard, of Huntingdon; Miss Redifer.

—The Armstrong Coke Company, of Pittsburg, has sent a supply of insulating material to the college laboratories to be tested.

—The 1903 La Vie board had its last meeting at Sheasley's, Wednesday evening, December 3. The occasion was celebrated by a banquet, which was especially enjoyable in view of the fact that the efforts of the board had proved a remarkable success, financially as well as otherwise. After the feast came reminiscences of Freshmen and Sophomore days, and general social good time.

—On Friday night, November 21st, sixty-three members of the Class of 1904 celebrated their banquet at the Bolton