

bers of the Free Lance Board and the articles submitted will be judged by competent men not connected with the Board.

CONDITIONS.

1. All productions must be handed in, on or before Feb. 25.
2. Each competitor must sign an assumed name to his production and place in the Free Lance box an envelope with the assumed name outside and his real name inside.
3. All articles submitted are to become the property of the Free Lance.

—On December 16 Governor Stone, Major-General Charles Miller, Commander of the National Guard; Colonel W. F. Reynolds, of Bellefonte; Major Lewis E. Beitler, of Philadelphia, and over forty members of the State Legislature visited the College. The two main objects of the visitors were to become personally acquainted with the educational work the College is doing and to review the Cadet battalion. Although the day was very stormy, the visitors spent the forenoon in visiting the various departments, paying special attention to the practical work going on in the shops and laboratories.

The program for the afternoon consisted of an exhibition competitive drill for a sword, which was to be presented to the captain of the best drilled company, and of an assemblage in chapel for the purpose of having a few words from our guests and to thank them for coming.

The drill was begun by Company B at 1:30, after the Governor had taken his seat on the stage, with the Representatives and Senators. This Company was followed by Companies D, C and A, respectively, each executing the company movements and manual of arms. The companies throughout the drill were carefully inspected by Major-General Charles Miller, Colonel W. F. Reynolds and Major Lewis E. Beitler, who acted as judges.

This company drill was followed by a dress parade, using the platoons of two companies as companies. Afterwards Mr. Tuholski, Captain of Company D, and Mr. S. E. Miller, Captain of Company A, were called forward and presented with