

- March 13. Basket ball. Susquehanna at State.
" 15. Y. M. C. A. Missionary Meeting.
" 16. Electrical Engineering Society.
" 17. Scientific Association, Prof. L. E. Reber and Prof.
F. E. Foss.
" 18. Natural History Club.
" 19. Basket ball. Williamsport Y. M. C. A. at State.
" 22. Y. M. C. A. Cleansing. Psa. cxix., 9.
" 23. Electrical Engineering Society.
" 24. Civil Engineering Society.
" 25. Natural History Club.
" 29. Y. M. C. A. How Christ Helped Me. 1 Pet. iii.,
15; Psa. xciv.
" 30. Electrical Engineering Society.
April 1. Easter vacation begins.

—"Garibaldi" fell twenty-eight and one-half minutes after eleven o'clock Wednesday morning, January 28th.

—State Secretary W. J. Miller visited the college, February 7-9. Plans are being formed looking to the employment of a permanent secretary to look after the college Y. M. C. A.

—Saums, W. R. Gorham, "Si" Wood and O. C. Hayes took supper at the Brockerhoff, February 4th. Ask them about their experience with the waiter and the menu card.

—The Seniors have decided to wear caps and gowns.

—The Beta Theta Pi Fraternity gave their annual mid-winter dance on the evening of February 6th. It was a very delightful affair, and guests were present from Lemont, Bellefonte, Pittsburg, Phillipsburg, Unionville, Williamsport and Lancaster. The patronesses were Mrs. Atherton, Mrs. G. G. Pond, Miss Snyder, Miss Redifer, Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Wadsworth, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Espenshade, Mrs. F. J. Pond, and Mrs. Jackson.

—On Monday, February 2, while the Sophomores were busily engaged with their studies, the Freshmen walked to the station, quietly boarded the Bellefonte Central train, and proceeded to