

Even if an entertainment is not as good as expected that is no excuse for actions other than gentlemanly.

—The first publication of any kind issued by the students at State was the Photosphere, published first in 1874, and was edited by A. E. Osborne and J. A. Ellis. The Photosphere was issued as the special organ of the Washington Literary Society, and among other things gives an historical sketch of the Society and also a copy of the program of the annual entertainment given Friday evening, May 22, 1874. How long the publication lived and what measure of success it had we were unable to learn. The copy from which these notes are taken belongs to Geo. Graham.

—In order to express a little feeling of relief which comes when examinations are over, the students held a "stag" dance in the Armory Friday evening, January 30th.

—Candidates from the Senior Class for membership in the honorary fraternity, Phi Kappa Phi, are R. R. Baillie, E. H. Beckert, A. R. Dennington, W. H. Kirk, J. B. Landis, J. M. Nelson, A. S. O'Neil, I. C. Palmer, C. W. Rogers, J. H. Snyder, H. E. Stitt, R. L. Streeter. Eligibility for membership in the fraternity is based on scholarship-standing for the entire college course.

—The officers elected by the Literary Club for the ensuing year are—President, Prof. Espenshade; Vice-Presidents, Prof. Foster and Prof. Willard; Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. Powell; Executive Committee, Profs. Gill, Osmond, Shed and Powell.

STATE COLLEGE, PA., Feb. 3, 1903.

At a meeting of the Electrical Engineering Society the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, By the death of Mr. Arthur T. Holloway the Electrical Engineering Society of the Pennsylvania State College has lost an honored member and an esteemed friend; be it

Resolved, That we, the members of this Society, extend to the bereaved family and his classmates our sincerest sympathy; and,
