

In discussing the game the Geneva Daily Tribune says: "Geneva College won from State College team last evening in the most brilliant game of basket ball played in this place this season, and the one thousand spectators shouted themselves hoarse when the home team forged ahead in the second half and secured the lead on their opponents. Short, quick work characterized the work of the visitors, who played a fast and brilliant game and at the end of the first half the score stood 9 to 8 in their favor. Forkum's accurate shooting and Dunn's interference were the features of the visitors' work."

—With regard to the game at Meadville, one of the Meadville dailies says: "In one of the most equally matched games of the season the State College basket ball team suffered defeat in the college gymnasium Friday night at the hands of the Allegheny College five. The game was fast and rough, although no rougher than could be expected from such a fast game. The team work of State College was by far the best seen on the gymnasium floor this season. Time after time the ball was kept in a close field by short, accurate passing. In this kind of work Dunn, the little forward, was always in the play to coach his men and keep them together. Notwithstanding the fact that this game was the fifth of the trip played by State College, the team was in excellent condition. At no stage of the game did the men show signs of giving up in their fast work, but played a hard game to the finish. The team work of State was a feature of the game. Dunn put up a brilliant game for his team, being in the game at every stage to encourage his men."
