

ponent of the literary life of the college; to that end we earnestly solicit contributions from all of you, undergraduates, faculty and alumni. As for the new board, to quote Elbert Hubbard, "If we take a tumble now and then, we'll try to be up before the referee counts ten."

 CALENDAR.

- April 1. Easter vacation begins.
 " 5. Y. M. C. A., A Safe Guard, Prov. 7, 4-5.
 " 7. Y. M. C. A., How to be Lights in the World, Acts 13, 47; Eph. 5, 6-8.
 " 7. Scientific Association, Prof. H. A. Surface, Mr. H. P. Wood.
 " 7. Electrical Engineering Society.
 " 8. Spring term opens.
 " 8. Meeting Natural History Club.
 " 12. Y. M. C. A., Complete Surrender, Acts 5, 2.
 " 14. Y. M. C. A., How May we Preach Christ, 2 Tim. 4, 1-10.
 " 14. Y. M. C. A., How May We Preach Christ, 2 Tim. 4. Leitzell.
 " 14. Electrical Engineering Society.
 " 15. Natural History Club.
 " 16. Base ball, F. and M. at Lancaster, Pa.
 " 17. Base ball, Mount St. Mary's at Emmitsburg, Md.
 " 18. Base ball, U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.
 " 19. Y. M. C. A., Missionary Meeting.
 " 21. Y. M. C. A., Our Foolish Excuse, Prov. 1, 24-28.
 " 21. Scientific Association, Prof. Gill and Mr. W. H. Parker.
 " 21. Electrical Engineering Society.
 " 22. Natural History Club.
 " 26. Y. M. C. A., Getting the Most Out of the Bible, Deu. 6, 1-9.
 " 28. Y. M. C. A., The Castaway, 1 Cor. 9, 25-27.