

class was not going out into the "wide, wide world" but out among the alumnæ. "We hope," he said, "to be able to keep up the reputation former graduates have made; we are glad to be received by you and accept most thankfully your welcome unto your ranks."

GRADUATION EXERCISES OF THE CLASS OF 1903.

Honors.

First Honors—Arthur Roscoe Dennington, John Bechtel Landis, Edwin Ray Norris, Isaac Charles Palmer, Harry Edwin Stitt, Robert LeRoy Streeter.

Second Honors—Robert Randall Baillie, Elmer Henry Beckert, John Shreiner Cochran, Sterling DeWitt Fowler, Ernest Stewart McLarn, Helen Dale Musser, Joseph Marcy Nelson, Arthur Samuel O'Neill, Frederick Robert Shaffer, John Hoffer Snyder, Floyd Hamilton Taylor.

Order of Exercises.

Music, overture, "Italians in Algeria" (Rossini); invocation, the Rev. M. Deniston; oration, The Jury System, Elmer Henry Beckert; oration, College Life, Arthur Roscoe Dennington; music, selection, "Mr. Pickwick" (Klein); oration, Unmentioned Heroes, John Hoffer Snyder; oration, "The Responsibility of the Press, David Benjamin Tuholski; music, selection, "The Prince of Pilsen" (Luders); valedictory oration, Floyd Hamilton Taylor; music, (a) Ballet Music from "Faust" (Suite 11) (Gounod), (b) "Sizilietta" (Blon); commencement address, The Hon. Hampton L. Carson, Attorney General of Pennsylvania; music, serenade, "Love in Idleness" (Macbeth); conferring degrees and awarding prizes; commencement hymn; music, march, "Hiawatha" (Moret).

Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Science.

Course in Agriculture—Fred. Parmenter Dodge, Shingle House; James Joseph Markle, State College; Harry Camble Neel, Dravosburg. (Presented by Professor Frear.)