

Edgar Earl Goddard, Huntingdon; Francis Calvin Johnston, Franklin; David Arthur Jones, Jr., Minersville; Charles Lambert Kinsloe, Lack Haven; Walter Lewis Kirk, Pittsburg; James Vance Kyle, Milroy; John Bechtel Landis, Rock Glen; Ernest Stewart McLarn, Oakdale; William Russel Miles, Kennett Square; Joseph Marcy Nelson, Chester; Frank Luther Rohrbach, Sunbury; Ralph Monroe Rumbel, Ringtown; Bayard Heston Sharpe, West Chester; Emory Burr Stauffer, Palo Alto; Harry Everett Stoeltzing, Pleasantville; Clarence Griffith Stoll, Mount Joy; Albert Wert, Carlisle; Howard S. Yeakle, Norristown. (Presented by Professor Jackson.)

Course in Mines and Mining—George Herman Deike, Pittsburg; Charles Stone Freeman, Pittsburg; Harold Gray Glenn, State College; Edward Nathan Zern, Lehighton. (Presented by Professor Wadsworth.)

Candidates for Advanced Degrees.

Master of Science—Roy Briscoe Mattern—B. S. in Chemistry, the Pennsylvania State College, 1893. Teacher of Science and Mathematics, Bellefonte High School, 1893-'97; Instructor in Mathematics, Adelphi College, 1897-1900; Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Adelphi College, 1900-'02; Sub-Master, the MacKenzie School, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., 1902. Thesis: The Essentials of Method in Education.

William Henry Reblun—B. S. in Chemistry, the Pennsylvania State College, 1894. Assistant in Chemical Laboratories, the Pennsylvania State College, 1894-'95; Teacher of Science, Butler High School, 1895-'98; Chemist with the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Company, 1898-1901; Managing Chemist, Monterey Glass Company, Monterey, Mexico, 1901. Thesis: A Search for Soda.

Electrical Engineer—Harry Peterman Wood—B. S. in Electrical Engineering, the Pennsylvania State College, 1899. With the J. G. White Company, Electrical Contractors, 1899; with the New York Edison Company, 1900; Superintendent of the Detroit East Side Electric Company, 1900-'01; Instructor in Electrical