

permits the boys to dine in shirt waists, but positively forbids them to roll up their sleeves.

—Dr. Francis Pott, president of St. John's College, Shanghai, China, is visiting in Boston. Mr. Pott is a graduate of Columbia University. His wife was a daughter of the first 'Chinaman who came to this country to be educated. Dr. Pott is the author of a number of Chinese books, including a "Life of Christ," and several scientific treatises.

—The will of Mrs. Mary Winthrop bequeaths $2,130,000 to the Princeton Theological Seminary.

—During his Western trip, President Roosevelt visited Leland Stanford University. He was most enthusiastically received by President Jordan and the student body.

—Cornell Freshmen gave their banquet at the Lyceum Theatre. The Sophomores preceded the feast by marching twenty-five of the Freshmen through the streets, painted in fantastic colors. At one time during the proceedings a rush occurred and many men were hurt.

—The undergraduates of Princeton raised $1,000 to furnish a room in the new Institutional Club building at Manila. Other American universities will do the same.

ATHLETICS.

W. B. HOKE.

EASTERN BASE BALL TRIP.

The second Eastern base ball trip was disastrous for State in the way of scores. Nevertheless, Rohrbach's men did that which many other strong college teams would like to do—defeat Fordham.

Yale defeated State by a score of 4 to 1. The game was well-played and Yale seemed to fear that she would lose. But, of course, this could never happen.