The commencement game with Manhattan College was as exciting and as close a game as one can see anywhere. An immense crowd enjoyed the contest. Miller never pitched a better game. He foiled many attempts to rattle him and pitched more coolly than ever. Rohrbach's error and an overthrow by Miller were responsible for Manhattan's two runs. The team gave Miller steady support, and few of Manhattan's men saw first base. Rock made a sensational catch. The score:—
