

- Nov. 10th. Civ. Eng. Society, topics by Kittredge and Gearhart. Y. M. C. A., everyday duty, James 1, 22-27; Rom. 1, 14.
- Nov. 11th. Meeting Nat. History Club.
- Nov. 14th. Foot ball, State and Dickinson game at Williamsport.
- Nov. 15th. Y. M. C. A., the Christian citizen.
- Nov. 17th. Y. M. C. A., weeds signs of neglect, Luke 8, 14; Rev. 3, 2. Meeting of Scientific Association; paper, Mr. Keith; topic, Mr. Churchill.
- Nov. 18th. Meeting of Natural History Club.
- Nov. 22d. Things for which we should be thankful, Psalm 103.
- Nov. 24th. Civ. Engineering Society. Topics by Leitzell and Hoke. Y. M. C. A., What Christ has done for me, Psalm 116.
- Nov. 25th. Nat. History Club.
- Nov. 25th-29th. Thanksgiving vacation.
- Nov. 26th. Foot ball, State vs. Steelton, at Steelton.
- Nov. 29th. Y. M. C. A., the danger of prosperity.
- Dec. 1st. Scientific Association. Paper, Prof. Lenfest; topic, Mr. Shattuck. Y. M. C. A., Lives that lift, Dan. 12, 3.
- Dec. 2d. Nat. History Club.
- Dec. 5th. Lulu Tyler Gates Company, third in Y. M. C. A. concert series.
- Dec. 6th. Our temptations and how to avoid them, Matt. 4, 1-11.
- Dec. 8th. Civ. Eng. Society. Papers by Messrs. Musser and Over. Y. M. C. A., our body the temple of Christ, 1 Cor. 3, 16-17.

---

COLLEGE MISCELLANY.

C. S. BOMBERGER.

R. H. H. AUNGST.

ALEX. HART.

—The Civil Engineering Society organized Tuesday night, October 27. The following are the officers chosen: President, Bryson; Vice-President, Leitzell; Secretary, Frazer; Treasurer, Campbell; Executive Committee, Prof. Foss, and the president and secretary of the organization. The first regular meeting is