

is already approaching completion. The bricklayers have finished their work ahead of contract time.

—The trial debate for the purpose of choosing men to represent State in the Inter-Collegiate debate to be held here December 11th, with Franklin and Marshall College was held in the old chapel on Tuesday evening, October 27th. The debators put up good arguments. The men chosen were as follows: Mr. A. Hart, Jr., '05; Mr. O. C. Hays, '06, and Mr. W. U. Williams, '07. Mr. Haverstick, '07, was chosen alternate.

The judges were, Professors G. G. Pond, B. Gill, I. L. Foster, J. H. Leete and E. W. Runkle.

The question, "Resolved, that labor unions tend to injure the industrial welfare of the country," was the same question which will be debated in the inter-collegiate debate.

—A marked feature of the improvement in the "State standard" is the fact that so much enthusiasm is shown in mass meetings this year. A large majority of the students have been present at the several meetings held, and have very creditably shown interest in the team. A number of new yells and songs have been composed, and several of our old and somewhat objectionable ones have been eliminated.

Another beautiful phase of college life is being brought out by our able college choir. All honor to the boys who go out on the campus and sing good songs well.

—The first number of the Y. M. C. A. concert course was a musical entertainment given on Saturday evening, October 17th, in the auditorium by the Ovide Musin Company. The auditorium was well filled. The music issuing from the violin of Mr. Musin entranced everyone. He is a wonderful violinist. Madame Musin, although singing very classical music, charmed the students with her ability as a soprano.

—Prof. and Mrs. Reber entertained the senior and junior mechanicals at their residence on Hallowe'en. Every one present had a most enjoyable time playing games and other Hallowe'en diversions.
