

Is she went or are she gone?
 Have she left I all alone?
 Will her ne'er come back to me?
 Or us ever go to she?
 It cannot was!

—Er.

The Bohemian cheerily loans you his last nickel to prove his friendship: moreover, he considers you treat him shabbily if you go hungry while he has the price of your dinner. Herein lies the difference between plutocrat and pauper.—The Idealist.

ATHLETICS.

W. B. HOKE.

STATE, O—U. OF P., 39.

The foot ball team met its first defeat on Franklin Field, Saturday, October 10th. The score, 39-0, merely indicates what State's team could do against Penn's heavier one on a very muddy field. Again, with Whitworth out of the game and several others not in the best of condition, the score is explainable.

The papers called us "farmers," but Penn was very fortunate in securing for herself two of those "farmers." One of them, Smith, was the soul of the game for the Red and Blue. He was their ground gainer. He rushed one kick-off back 60 yards. In the various accounts of the game his name was in nearly every line. It was ex-State against State, and ex-State and his supporters won out.

Contrary to newspapers and the score the team did not allow the University to simply walk up and down the field. It made a very plucky fight against odds. Penn was held for downs in the second half. State made but one first down, however, and Penn gained in the punting duels. Forkum twice failed in attempts to kick field goals: once on the 35 yard line, and again on the 45 yard line. The game ended with the ball in Penn's possession. The line-up: