

snow storms and blocked railways on their return after the holidays. All kinds of excuses and telegrams came pouring into the registrar's office.

—Harvard authorities have sacrificed religion to economy. They have done away with the custom of paying pew rents for the students in the local churches.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell, of the Smithsonian Institute, have arrived in this country from Europe with the remains of James Smithson. He was the founder of the Institute which bears his name, and he died in Genoa, Italy, in 1829. His remains will be interred at Washington.

—President Raymond, of Wesleyan University of Connecticut, has suspended six members of the Sophomore class until the February examinations. They were guilty of too rough treatment in hazing Freshmen.

—Chicago University has plans for three new schools and twenty-two new buildings. This means the expenditure of more than $3,000,000. All of the present buildings have been gifts to the university; four of them being from the generosity of Mr. Rockefeller. President Harper feels confident that all future plans and improvements will be sustained financially.

—Present rules of Lafayette College allow the student ten per cent. cuts.

—The men of Cornell College are worked harder than the co-eds. Following are figures of the average division of twenty-four hours as given by the Cornell College of Arts and Sciences:

Works.	Men.	Women.
Work	8½ hours.	7¾ hours.
Amusement	2½ hours.	2¼ hours.
Physical exercise	1¾ hours.	1¾ hours.
Meals	1¼ hours.	1¾ hours.
Sleep	8¼ hours.	7¾ hours.
Unclassified	1¾ hours.	2¾ hours.