

1903, where he remained until December 28, when he and his wife started for Pine Crest, North Carolina, but were forced to stop at Washington, on account of his failing condition, and it was there that his death occurred.

His remains were taken to Tyrone and interred in the Grandview cemetery.

—A. B. Schoffstall, '00, has accepted a position as assistant in the chemical laboratory for the remainder of the present year.

—E. C. Hughes, '02, who, since graduation, has been engaged on the steamship Texan of the American and Hawaiian line, recently left the employ of that company, and has accepted a position with a large pump firm of Buffalo. Mr. Hughes spent a few days at the college visiting among his friends while on the way to take up his new work.

—F. P. Dodge, '03, is at present engaged by the college as an instructor in the short agricultural course.

—G. V. Sborigi, '03, of Pittsburg, is engaged at the college in making a map of Pennsylvania for the St. Louis Exposition. The map is to illustrate the number of bushels of each of the different cereals raised in each county of the State during the past year.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

O. C. HAYS.

—A great deal of interest has been aroused among college students of the country in the proposed national oratorical league comprising all the State universities of the union. The league will be so conducted that men of ordinary oratorical ability shall be able to enter the contests.

The plans are as yet incomplete, but we shall outline the scheme in the main. An endeavor shall be made to enlist interest of local