

vacancy caused by his resignation has been filled by S. D. Fowler, '03, who, since graduation, has been employed in the car shop at Berwick, Pa.

—John M. Dale, '82, one of Bellefonte's most prominent lawyers, died Thursday evening, March 3d, his death being the result of a stroke of apoplexy.

—J. R. Keenan, '98, is acting as supervisor of maintenance of way on the Sunbury Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad during the illness of the supervisor.

—W. L. Carter, Jr., formerly fellow in agricultural chemistry at the experiment station, has been assigned to the charge of the soil survey of a Texas district during the winter and spring months, by the United States Bureau of Soils.

---

COLLEGE ORBIT.

O. C. HAYS.

—Mr. John Hammond, a noted mining engineer, who was closely associated with Cecil Rhodes in mining enterprise in South Africa, has given $100,000 for the erection of a metallurgical laboratory at Yale.

—Five students were expelled from Princeton through their secret violation of the student's honor system in examinations. These men secured copies of the examination questions from the printer. The fraud was discovered, and they were forced to leave with the disgrace upon them.

—Columbia will be represented at the inter-scholastic athletic contests at the St. Louis Fair by an eight-oar crew.

—Prof. Triggs, instructor in literature and political economy at Chicago University, will leave his position in a few weeks. His views on economic questions do not harmonize with those of