

—Dr. William Frear, Professor of Agricultural Chemistry, has been appointed by the Director of Congresses of the St. Louis Exposition as a member of the Committee on Organization for the International Pure Food Congress to be held in connection with the Exposition.

—A recent addition to the College Orchestra is a double bass viol. The orchestra as now organized consists of the following: Cornet, R. W. Bowers, '04, of Harrisburg, leader; 1st violins, C. P. Stuart, '06, of Pittsburg, and C. A. Shearer, '04, of Reading; 2d violins, W. H. McCune, '04, of McKeesport; G. E. Miller, '07, of Windber, and A. G. McGarvey, '07, of Mount Union; 1st clarinet, R. J. Smith, '07, of Sunbury; 2d clarinet, D. R. Davis, '06, of Everson; piano, C. R. Potteiger, '07, of Reading; cello, H. K. Dimlow, '07, of York; double bass viol, L. W. Cooper, '05, of Paradise; trombone, K. L. Gilson, '06, of Corry; drums, R. W. Bair, '06, of Hanover.

—The members of the Mandolin Club are: 1st mandolins, C. A. Shearer, '04, of Reading, leader; P. O. Noble, '04, of Snyder-town, and M. I. Killmer, '06, of Stouchsburg; 2d mandolins, C. L. Armsby, '04, of State College; R. H. Elliott, '05, of Chambersburg; R. L. Kell, '05, of Loysville, and G. L. Christman, '05, of Reading; guitars, E. R. Ale, '04, of Bellwood, president, and J. F. Johnson, '05, of Bloomsburg.

—The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity had a house warming and smoker at their new chapter house Friday and Saturday nights, March 18th and 19th.

—The Freshmen to take part in the Inter-class debates are: P. W. Haverstick, of Lykens; P. A. Rainey, of Laceyville, and J. P. Smith, of Yellow Creek. The Sophomores are: O. C. Hays, of Oil City; W. G. Heckathorne, of Slippery Rock, and C. D. Flickinger, of Newport. The Juniors are: P. M. Rainey of Laceyville; A. Hart, Jr., of Chester, and F. J. Saunders, of Syracuse, N. Y.