On Tuesday, April 19th, a game was played with Fordham College. Last year's work of the State team on the same field was fresh in the minds of the boys, and each entered his position with determination. The game was very exciting throughout, but the cool headed work of Haverstick with the never-failing help of his supporters brought another victory. The last inning seemed as if it would be a treacherous one, for two men gained bases and none out. Then the grandstand was livened up with music, singing and acornet. The "midget" said he always could pitch to Irish music, and ended the game by catching a pop-fly, and fanning out the next two. The score:
