

PERSONALS

H. R. Nelson, '01 returned to College for a few days this week.

Professor Willard was called to Baltimore on Sunday last, by the death of Mrs. Willard's sister.

E. S. Burns and C. Whyne, both of Bucknell, witnessed the State—West Virginia game here on Oct. 15th.

Frank Hershey, '06 was called to his home in Harrisburg on Monday by the sudden death of his mother.

G. M. Sellers, ex-'03, and a graduate of the Columbia School of Mines, has returned to State College to finish his thesis. This is necessary before he can receive his diploma from Columbia.

Prof. Pattee, head of the Department of English, has taken a short vacation in order to visit his old college of Dartmouth. The corner stone of Dartmouth Hall is to be laid this week. The original building, which was the oldest at Dartmouth, was destroyed by fire last Spring.

Mr. R. E. Stallings has returned from a month's vacation spent at his home in Salisbury, N. C. Mr. Stallings has been transferred from the position of Assistant Chemist of the Experiment Station to that of Assistant in Animal Nutrition, and during the remainder of the year will devote his entire time to the investigations with the Respiration Calorimeter.

Kuhn—McFeely

Cards announcing the marriage of Miss Anna L. McFeely to William S. Kuhn, both of Pittsburg, have been received by friends in State College. Mr. Kuhn is a brother of Lewis O. Kuhn, '05. He himself was a student at this college during the year of 1901-02 and made many acquaintances, who wish him all kinds of joy and success.

The Republican Rally.

State College was the scene of considerable enthusiasm last Friday evening when the Republicans held a great rally. Led by the State College and Lemont bands, the supporters of Roosevelt and Fairbanks paraded the streets and finally assembled in the old Chapel. The chairman, Mr. W. L. Foster, called the meeting to order shortly after eight and introduced Judge Love. Mr. Love in a well delivered oration spoke to some extent on the duties and responsibilities of citizenship and exhorted every man to think for himself in questions of politics. Judge Love was followed by ex-Judge Furst who, after congratulating the student body on the opportunities which they possess as students at State College, discussed the question of tariff and protection of home industries. The last speaker of the evening was Col. Coburn, who made an earnest appeal for the support of the County as well as the national ticket. The meeting was fairly well attended by both the students and the town people.

Berzelius Chemical Society.

The Berzelius Chemical Society, the reorganization of which has been in progress for some time past, celebrated its first complete meeting with a supper at Harrison's Bakery on Thursday evening, Oct. 20th. The Society is composed of Senior and Junior chemists, twenty-four of whom were seated at the festive board. Drs. Pond, Tuttle, Clark, Wyman and Messrs. Churchill and Shoffstall were present. Alex. Hart, '05 acted as toastmaster and called on the following to respond to toasts: Dr. Pond, E. G. Bashore, Dr. Tuttle, C. R. Oberfell, Mr. Churchill, J. J. Morgan, W. C. Cope, and R. H. Aungst. It is the intention of the Society to have supper at least once a month, and it is hoped that they will all be as enjoyable as the first.

Carnegie and the Governor.

Arrangements have been completed by which Governor Pennypacker and Mr. Andrew Carnegie will be present at the dedication of the new library on Nov. 18. For some time past it had been thought doubtful if Mr. Carnegie could be here but according to a telegram received by Dr. Atherton and here given he will come.

"Shall attend. Arrive evening seventeenth. Carnegie."

Mr. Carnegie has since written President Atherton that both Mrs. Carnegie and Mr. John Morley will accompany him.

Dictionaries in the Class Room.

Professor Espenshade's students have purchased a new Webster's International Unabridged Dictionary and have placed it in Room 567 for the use of his classes. Messrs. Funk & Wagnalls, publishers of the Standard Dictionary, have also very generously given a new "Student's Standard" to be used in the same room. Such books of reference are almost indispensable to students in their English work. About a hundred students will have almost daily access to these dictionaries.

Professor Pattee has also placed a new Webster's International Dictionary in his class-room for the use of his students.

Thanksgiving Hop.

Friday, Nov. 18th, has been definitely settled as the date for the annual Thanksgiving Hop. That week will be a gala one for State College. Quite a number of the fraternities will give dances on Thursday, the 17th. On Friday the dedication of the new Carnegie Library takes place, with the Hop in the evening. On Saturday we will have a fitting wind up in the football game of State vs. Geneva on Beaver Field.
