A Mistake.

In the account of the State—W. U. P. game the statement was made that "McGee fumbled on State's 15 yard line on the first down." George denies that he committed this grievous blunder, so we hasten to make all apologies for the false accusation.

Resolutions.

Whereas, the Allwise and Merciful Father has seen fit to take to Himself our beloved friend and co-worker, Mrs. Josiah Jackson.

Be it Resolved—that the Woman's Literary Club of State College has sustained a grievous and irreparable loss in the death of a charter member, an organizer and leader in progressive ideas, and also a treasured personal friend; that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to her bereaved family.

Resolved—that the Secretary be instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to each of the surviving children and that they be published in the local papers.

Signed—Mrs. G. W. Atherton,
Miss Anna Redifer
Mrs. F. L. Pattee,
Mrs. W. L. Foster,
Mrs. W. J. Keith,

Committee on Resolutions.

These resolutions were adopted at a regular meeting of the Women's Club, November 8, 1904.

SLIP INTO A "SIM" SUIT and you'll slip out with regret. It's put together without a slip, and once formed, you'll never slip away from the "Sim" habit. The modest "price-slip" finishes our story.

"Man wants but little here below, nor wants that little long,"

But when it comes to his wearing apparel he's pretty particular. The apparel bearing the label of
