C. R. Smith '06, Varsity tackle, has returned to college after a fortnight's stay at his home on account of sickness.

The Kappa Sigma fraternity will give a dance at their chapter house on Friday evening, the 16th. Kettering's orchestra of Greensburg will furnish the music.

Dr. Atherton was one of the guests at the banquet of the Pennsylvania Society in honor of Senator Knox on Thursday evening Dec. 12th. The banquet was held at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York and seven hundred guests were present.

Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Wood entertained the upper class Mechanicals electing Railroads, last Friday at the Ladies' Cottage. The evening was devoted to table games, concluding with light refreshments. The section voted the evening a most delightful one.

The members of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity who have been quarantined in their house because of scarlet fever, have been released by the local Board of Health on condition that they leave for their homes at once. The patients, McDowell and Skinner, are improving.

Alumni Notes.

H. H. Allen, '97, has just been appointed to the position of Western Agent for the Susquehanna Coal Company.

J. H. M. Andrews '98 was married in Carlisle, Pa., recently. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are now residing in Philadelphia.

Mr. Samuel Holland ex-'98, who holds an excellent position with the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. at Philadelphia, was visiting at the College recently.

F. E. Winters of the Sophomore class has been compelled to leave college on account of sickness. He hopes to be able to return after Christmas and continue with his work.

P. J. Morrissey and J. D. Elder, both of last year's graduating class, are employed by the Edison Illuminating Company of Detroit, Mich. The former is in the operating department while Elder is in the engineering department.

J. Ralph Gutelius who was a member of last year's preparatory class for a short time, has been compelled to undergo an operation for appendicitis. The operation was performed in the Bellefonte Hospital and the patient is doing very well.

New Constitution Adopted.

At the last business meeting of the Y. M. C. A., held Tuesday evening Dec. 6, a new constitution was adopted. The old one was in many ways unsatisfactory and incomplete, and a committee had been appointed to recast it entirely, making various changes and adding new articles. The changes and additions were accepted unanimously.

Clubs.

The York Club, held a meeting Friday evening, Dec. 9th, 1904, in the Engineering Building and elected officers for the year. The election resulted as follows: President, F. A. R. Hoffditz, '05, vice president, C. Reigart, '06, secretary and treasurer, A. H. Kautz, '05.

It was decided to hold a banquet at York on 30th of December. The prime object of this banquet is to get the prospective college students of that vicinity interested in State College.

The Hon. Hiram Young and the Mayor of York will be guests.

The Berks County students met last week to perfect an organization.

The Harrisburg Club met on Friday evening to transact current business and arrange for a supper.

The Philadelphia Club seems to be the most prosperous of all the sectional Clubs. Its meetings are held regularly and they seem to be well attended. The members are certainly discrediting the reputation of their city for "slowness."

The Literary Club met on Monday evening last at the home of Dr. Benjamin Gill. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Rev. George I. Brown, of Bellefonte; First Vice-President, Mr. J. H. Frizzell; Second Vice-President, Prof. George C. Butz; Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. P. O. Ray.

The Literary Program consisted of a paper entitled, "The Old Man Eloquent," read by Mr. J. H. Frizzell, and a discussion, led by Rev. George I. Brown, on the topic, "The Spirit of Caste." Mr. Frizzell's paper was an appreciation of the life and service of the late Senator George Frisbie Hoar, of Massachusetts. Rev. Brown based his remarks on an ancient book on caste, and applied some of the satires of the book to our modern conditions.
