

York Club Banquet.

The banquet of the York Club composed of students attending State from York and vicinity, at York on the 30th of December was a huge success. The purpose of the Club in holding such an affair was to interest prospective students and the people of York in general in State College. In this they succeeded admirably. Members of the Club, former students, alumni, and invited guests assembled in the dining room of the National Hotel at nine o'clock. After disposing of the bountiful feast before them, President F. A. R. Hoffeditz called on a number of the guests present for remarks. Managing Editor Fowler of the "York Daily," who represented Hiram Young, Editor of the "Daily" and a trustee of the College, expressed Mr. Young's regrets at his inability to be present. Professor Gill attended the function as the representative of the Faculty and entertained the company with an address on the growth and development of State. The following also responded to toasts:—

"The Alumni of York," E. S. Frey, '03.

"The York Club and Its Needs," J. P. Kottcamp, '04.

"Social Life at State," C. E. Culp, '06.

"The Assimilation of New Students," H. H. Hollinger, ex-'05.

Those present were, Prof. Benjamin Gill, State College; E. S. Frey, '03; J. P. Kottcamp, '04; John Reigart, William Stair, Edward Gerber, Jacob Aldinger, Harry Hollinger, D. P. Young, Frank V. McConkey, F. B. Stieg, C. A. Bennett, W. P. Stine, Hodge Smith, E. F. Heckert, John L. May, C. E. Culp, and F. A. R. Hoffeditz, all of York; J. H. Zarfos, Red Lion; A. H. Kautz, Seven Valleys; C. L. Goodling, Loganville; D. A. Barnett, Delta; C. G. Evans, Harrisburg; C. N. Abel, York Haven; and H. R. Geib, Marysville.

THE TAILOR IS A BUGABOO by whom many a man is awed into patronizing some dingy wielder of the shears. The great shops in which "SIM" clothes are made are true tailoring establishments equipped with every help calculated to simplify work and achieve more perfect results. "SIM" clothes are moderate priced.
