University of Pennsylvania students will receive the pleasure of an address by President Roosevelt on Washington's birthday.

The recently elected president of the Sophomore class at Harvard is a man who is earning his way through college by waiting on table.

Beloit College, Wisconsin, has a new Carnegie Library. There is also one other Carnegie Library in the same town. The value of both is $75,000.

Lehigh University is endeavoring to find a suitable person to fill the college presidency made vacant by the death on November 16 of Dr. T. M. Drown. Mr. Schwab, the well known financier, has been suggested as a candidate to fill the vacancy that occurs in Lehigh's Board of Trustees.

The engineers at Minnesota University have inaugurated an anti-chapel crusade, the control of which has been vested in a sort of a vigilance committee. The duty and pleasure of this committee is to way-lay any engineer who obeys the faculty's orders and goes to chapel. Several of the faithful have been vigorously pounded for their devotion to chapel exercises.

Of the Yale freshman class of three hundred and thirty-one, the report of the medical examiner shows that a hundred and forty-one smoke, a hundred and two wear g'asses and twelve have been ordered to wear them, a hundred and thirty-four have never had gymnastic training, forty-six cannot swim, and a hundred and ninety-six have been in athletics. The average weight is a hundred and thirty-six pounds.
