LOCALS

R. G. Clough '07 is laid up with a severe attack of the grippe.

W. C. Patterson, the Superintendent of Grounds and Buildings, is another victim of the grippe.

Profs. Foster and Willard, who have been confined to their rooms on account of sickness have returned to their accustomed places.

H. F. White '08, taking the course in Modern Languages, left college last Tuesday. He expects to enter Princeton next year.

Juniors and Sophomores who have not handed in lists of their vacant hours are requested to do so at once. Appointments in Junior and Sophomore Rhetoricals are posted on the Bulletin board in the lobby of the Carnegie Library.

The new catalogue has made its appearance. The style of the binding is the same as that of previous years. There are no changes of note outside of those in the options offered in the the various courses, which were reviewed in a previous issue of the COLLEGIAN.

The Pharsonians went over to Millheim on Tuesday, Feb. 14th and played to a crowded house for the benefit of a local charity. On Wednesday they gave a performance at Boalsburg for the Maccabees. At both places the boys were well entertained and from all accounts had a splendid time.

A series of special meeting were conducted by the Y. M. C. A. this week. They were fortunate in securing the service of Mr. S. M. Sayford of Boston, an evangelist of note, who addressed very appreciative audiences on Sunday and Monday evenings, besides preaching at the regular chapel exercises on Sunday morning.

C. N. Fisher of Zion, Pa., visited friends at College last week. He was a member of the class of 1903 during its preparatory and freshman years and reports that his brother, Art. Fisher, a member of the class of 1904 is employed by the Jones and Laughlin Steel Company of Pittsburg as an inspector.

The College Y. M. C. A. was well represented at the convention held in Johnstown last week from Thursday to Sunday. The following attended: O. C. Hays '06, J. C. Gottwals '06, G. W. Groff '07, H. B. Woodward '08, J. B. Watson '08, and W. M. Lee '09 together with Mr. Woodcock, the General Secretary of the Association.

All the members of the Alumni committee on arrangements for the Semi-centennial were present at the meeting held here Friday, Feb. 10th and discussed at some length the proposed program. Plans are under way to make Tuesday of Commencement week a grand success. The committee will hold its next meeting in Philadelphia on April 14th, when further details of the work will be taken up.

State 41, Dickinson 13.

On Friday evening February 17, State defeated Dickinson at basketball by the one-sided score of 41-13. The game started off with a rush, Opie of Dickinson throwing the first goal, but after that Dickinson could hardly get near the basket. State played fast ball from start to finish and worked together, while Dickinson suffered from lack of team work. The score at the end of the first half was 20-8. In the second half State rolled up twenty-one points while Dickinson secured but five. Captain Dunn was not in the game the first half, but in the second, played a lightning game for State, while Yeckley as usual excelled in "shooting," throwing no less than ten goals. The line-up:

STATE 41		DICKINSON 13
Dunn (Capt)	Caswell..forward	Opie
Foltzforward	Breneman
Yeckleycenter	Rich
Heatonr guard	Bremer
Moorheadl guard	Sadler (Capt.)

Goals from field—Yeckley 10, Heaton 4, Moorhead 3, Foltz 1, Opie 2, Breneman 2, Brenner 1. Goals from foul—Opie 3, Dunn 3, Moorhead 2. Time of halves—20 minutes. Referee—Killmer.
