On Thursday evening, about twenty-five Freshmen who, for various reasons were unable to be present at the big affair at Williamsport planned to have a banquet of their own on a small scale at Harrison's. The Sophs got wind of the affair and just as the Freshmen were about to sit down to their repast, appeared on the scene in force and summoned the 1908 men to hand over the goods. The Freshies wisely withdrew and the Sophs then turned the affair into a 1907 jubilation.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Mr. S. M. Sayford, whose addresses to the students here last week were productive of so much good, has gone to Grove City and Washington and Jefferson colleges where he will continue his evangelistic work.

The current number of the Intercollegian gives some interesting statistics of the Bible Study movement among the fraternities. In 19 institutions Bible classes have been organized in 68 different fraternities with a total membership of 798. Among these fraternities the following are represented by chapters at State: Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Sigma Chi.
