The Thespians Play.

The Thespians, the dramatic organization of the College, made their first appearance of the year in the Auditorium last Saturday evening in "The Boomerang," a four act comedy. A large and appreciative audience witnessed the performance. The play is filled with funny situations, and is of a nature to bring out the very best acting of each individual. E. G. Bashore '05 as leading man takes the part of Courtney Corliss successfully, while J. F. Johnson '05 is characteristically, good as Launcelot Bargiss, a literary aspirant. Of the others, Heinrich '05 as the Italian Palmiro, and Fitzimons '05 as Jessie, a maid, were very natural in their parts.

On the whole it was a good performance and compares very favorably with the previous presentations of the organization.

The Thespians left Monday morning on a trip to include Hollidaysburg and Tyrone, and will play in Bellefonte next Monday evening. The young people of Hollidaysburg gave a reception and dance in honor of the college men and from all accounts it was a very enjoyable affair. The boys returned to college yesterday.
