As far as can be ascertained the championship for eating Easter eggs goes to Stout, '07; only fourteen at one meal and that at breakfast too.

Several new tennis courts have made their appearance this spring; two in the vicinity of the track house, one at the K Σ House, one at the Σ A E House and one up at the old Inn site.

The students at Lafayette are exulting over the recent election of Prof. F. A. March as mayor of Easton. State, however, has them beaten; "Lordy" has been mayor of State College for a long time.

W. H. Kennedy, '98, was married at West Pittston on April the sixth, to Miss Elizabeth Carpenter of that town. Mr. Kennedy holds a position as assistant resident engineer for the Illinois Central at Dubuque, Iowa.

Mr. C. W. Goodman, a former member of the class of 1907, made a short visit to his brother I. V. Goodman, '07, last Friday. Mr. Goodman has been employed in the passenger department of the railroad shops at Altoona since he left college.

A large number of the members of Mechanical Engineering Society assembled last Wednesday evening at the Palace Restaurant for their last "feed" of the year. Instrumental and vocal music furnished by Sammy Hertzler and Si Johnson was very entertaining.

The National History Club had a very interesting meeting last Wednesday evening in the regular lecture rooms. While Miss Meek's lecture on the subject of Quantitative Biology was the most important part of the program, an informal feed held afterwards, was the most interesting.

At a meeting of the committee of Alumni on the Semi-Centennial Reunion held April 14th at the Bellevue Statford, at Philadelphia, the final arrangements were made for Alumni Day and all the details were completed. The third and last circulars to old students will be sent out in a few days.
