The Stag Dance.

The stag dance given by the band last Saturday night in McAllister Hall was highly successful from both a financial and musical standpoint. Over two hundred fellows enjoyed dancing to the catchy two-steps and dreamy waltzes. The excellent quality of the music was a revelation to many. During the intervals between the dances a quartette from the glee club rendered some very pleasing selections. It is to be hoped that "Paddy" Godard and his band will repeat the entertainment at some time in the near future.
