AGENTS ANYBODY CAN DO IT AGENTS

We want good live representatives to take orders for "Peuro or Pearl" Medallions. Entirely new. Sell at sight. Big money. Exclusive territory given. Agents' supplies. Novelties up-to-date. Write at once. Universal Manufacturing Co. Pittsburg, Pa.

"KNACK" or "KNOW-HOW" in Clothes Making, call it what you will, "SIM" models embody it. They press their claim upon your attention by the distinctiveness of the patterns, the excellency of the workmanship and their conformity to the latest whisper of the mode. Prices are their winning features, because they're just moderate enough.

Tennis.

In addition to those noted in the last issue of the COLLEGIAN, the following games have been played in the tennis tournament for the Stevenson Cup:

Perry and Crocker defeated Quigley and Armsby 10-8 and 7-5. Mitchell and McConnell defeated Sankey and Childs, 6-3 and 6-2. Stewart and Dunn won by default from Potteiger and Ashcraft.

This narrows the contest down to four teams: Barnet and Stevenson, Crocker and Perry, Stewart and Dunn, and the winners of the match between Mitchell and McConnell and Robinson and Ferguson.

It took Robinson and Ferguson three sets to defeat Mitchell and McConnel. Scores 3-6, 6-2, 6-3.

Agriculturists' Trip.

The Senior Agriculturists left here Saturday morning, May 20, on their annual inspection trip. The members arrived in Philadelphia and registered at the Hotel Hanover. On Sunday morning they journeyed to Atlantic City and returned the next day. The following three days were spent in inspecting in the vicinity of Philadelphia. A visit was made to Riverside, N. J. and other places of interest. At Haverford the boys visited Haverford College. They returned home last Saturday morning.

Alumni Notes.

Lyons, '04, and Norris, '04, are on the married list.

E. E. Ale, '04, is occupied in general telephone installation at Duluth, Minn.

C. H. Swanger, '04, is instructor in Chemistry at the Michigan State Agricultural College.

M. L. Gray, '04, has a position with the Union Switch and Signal Company of Swissvale, Pa.

E. A. Whitworth, '04, of the United States Steel Co. Homestead, Pa., spent a few days at the college this week.

Rev. Edwin W. Saphore, '82, of Watertown, N. Y., last week made his first visit to the college since his graduation. He will return for the Alumni reunion.

It is rumored that A. K. Risser '04, was recently married. Mr. Risser was a member of the class of 1903 originally but he received a position as recorder of experiments which took up so much of his time that he was not granted a degree until last year. He has been working in Topeka, Kan., for some time but has accepted a position in Manila, Philippine Islands and with his bride he will move there.
