to the appearance of College Avenue.

A large number of the Seniors are spending this week at their homes.

But one more baseball game remains to be played before this successful season ends.

The track meet with the Indians next Monday certainly ought to be a fast one. From the score made at Carlisle our chances look good to win this meet on our home grounds.

Dead and buried—the inter-class baseball games.

A meeting of local Alumni and representatives of the four classes was held at Prof. Reber's residence last Friday to discuss matters relating to Alumni Day of Commencement week.

Mr. Woodcock Leaving.

General Secretary J. R. Woodcock of the College Young Men's Christian Association severs his connection with that Association at the close of the present college year, and will go to Philadelphia where he is to be assistant pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of that city. Mr. Woodcock has been untiring in his efforts to forward the Y. M. C. A. work of the college, and he will be greatly missed by his friends and co-workers
