Reception to Mr. Woodcock.

J. R. Woodcock, retiring secretary of our College Y. M. C. A. work, was tendered an informal reception in the Association room on Friday evening. Y. M. C. A. members, General Beaver, and several members of the faculty were present. Entertainment was provided in the way of music, refreshments, and informal speeches by General Beaver, Dr. Gill and Rev. Mr. Dennison of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Woodcock was presented with a splendid Dictionary and stand as a token of the good feeling of the Association members toward him. He leaves next week for his new field of labor in the Second Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, and with him go the best wishes of a host of friends in and about the College.

Thespians' Election.

At a meeting of the Thespians last week the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, E. L. Diehl, '06; Secretary, W. G. Heckathorne, '06; Treasurer, Prof. J. H. Leete; Business Manager, W. R. Fleming, '06; Assistant Business Manager, J. B. Smith, '07; Executive Committee, Professors Pattee, Espenshade and Leete.

E. L. Diehl has this year taken a minor part in "The Boomerang," but on account of his duties as stage manager he is competent for his new position. Mr. Heckathorne as Professor Sadleigh is one of the stars of this years cast.

The usual custom of having three members of the faculty on the executive committee was complied with, and the Thespians next year should maintain the high standard of excellence set by casts of former years.

Sacred Concert.

The Sunday evening sacred concert was this year as always a very pleasing part of the Commencement program. It fills the gap from Baccalaureate services to the Monday festivities in a most acceptable manner. The selections by the choir were well selected and well rendered. The Double Quartette, "I will call upon Thee" deserves especial mention, as also the solo by Saunders, "The Ninety Nine."

C. M. Atherton, '92, was present and gave a violin solo, and Miss Stover of Pittsburg rendered a charming vocal solo. The program was:

1. Chorus - The Radiant Morn,
H. H. Woodward
2. Quartett—O, How Amiable Buck
3. Violin Solo "Berceuse" from
"Jocelyn" Mr. R. P. Farrington
4. Piano Duo Unfinished Symphony
Misses Grieb and Atherton.
5. Vocal Solo — Save Me, O Lord
Miss Stover
6. Chorus - Venite
7. Vocal Solo - The Publican
Mr. H. P. Dawson.
8. Violin Solo - Selected
J. P. Atherton.
9. Double Quartette "I Will Call
Upon Thee.

10. Vocal Solo The Ninety and nine
Mr. F. J. Saunders
11. Chorus Magnificat, R. E. H. Terry.

The Thespians.

The Boomerang, as presented by the Thespians on Monday evening differed from the performance of last winter only in its greater excellence. Perhaps the big audience inspired the boys, at any rate they showed better form than ever before, and deserved all the credit that the enthusiastic crowd heaped upon them. As to the individuals, it is hard to pick out the best, and we shall not risk our reputation as dramatic critics by making the attempt. One of the special features of the evening was the singing of "Birdie" by Fitzimons, '05. Mrs. Hurley, the trainer arrived from Saginaw, Mich., last Friday and supervised the play. The cast of characters was as follows.

Courtney Corliss.....	E. G. Bashore '05
Mr. Launselot Borgiss.....	J. F. Johnson '05
Paul Hollyhock.....	G. L. Hoffman '05
Prof. Sadleigh.....	W. G. Heckathorne '05
Signor Tambourin.....	H. H. Heinrich '05
A Postumnn.....	F. A. R. Hoffeitz '05
Jobbins.....	E. L. Diehl '06
Mrs. Borgiss.....	R. H. H. Augst '05
Mrs. Hollyhock.....	R. H. Smith '05
Flos.....	D. R. Davis '05
Jessie.....	Fitzimons '05
