

LOCALS.

Chas. Keefer, ex-'05, spent Sunday at the College.

C. R. Gaylord, ex-'08, has entered Dickinson College.

Gearhart, '09, has been entertaining his parents at the College.

Capt. Arnold had a number of his track men out running last week.

Contrary to report, Junior, Campbell ex-'07, has decided to enter State instead of Lehigh.

Homer R. Highley, instructor in mathematics, is assisting in coaching the football team. Mr. Higley was a student at both Harvard and Cornell.

C. R. Smith, '06, has gone to Harrisburg to take a position with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. "Rough-house" will be missed from the football team.

Butler, ex '06, who was in town during the last few days renewing acquaintances, left Tuesday for Ann Arbor, Mich., where he is a student at the University of Michigan.

J. J. Snyder leaves the college every morning at 6.15 for Lemont and returning arrives at 9.20. In the afternoon the hack leaves at 1.40 and returns at 4.40. Extra trips when called for.

A. L. Moscrip, ex-'07, right tackle on last year's eleven, is spending a few days with his former classmates this week. "Mossie" is working on a construction corps for the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

H. H. Haverstick, '07, left last Friday afternoon for the Sunbury hospital in care of his room-mate, C. H. Engle, '07. "Sticks" had been laid up several days previous, and Dr. Robison fears an attack of typhoid fever, which we sincerely hope may not develop.

Green.

Of course any one could have told that he was a Freshman. Perhaps he had never seen any of that kind of advertising or probably something else caused him to stand for fully three minutes under the willow gazing down on those white chalk marks, "Stag, Armory, 8.15 p. m."

Only when a Junior approached did he awake from his brown study. With some misgivings but with the hope of solving the mystery he approached the upper classman and asked, "Pardon me, but is the stag anything like the Elks?"

THE DRUG STORE

GREETING

This town is too small to support a drug store alone so we use the words mostly to designate our place of business.

We carry as large a line of Sundries as is found in any first class drug store, but specialize on Stationery, Drawing Materials and Fine Cigars. Our Soda trade is handled by EXPERTS and our terms are Cash.

They won't let us join the "Co-Operative", but we share our profits with you just the same, by raising the Standard and Quality of our Goods and maintaining the same low prices.

Kindly give us a call and let us get acquainted any way.

Yours from the start,

H. D. MEEK, Phar. D.
