

E. E. Society.

The Senior Electrical Engineers were the guests of the Junior Electricals at a banquet at McAllister Hall last evening. Caterer Housel did well in furnishing the good things as was attested to by all present.

After the repast was served the board was cleared and several of the prominent men from both classes responded to toasts. Stahl acted as toastmaster. The electrical men of the Faculty were present and had a chance to say something.

The organization this year numbers more than it ever did and a most successful year is predicted.

Fennell Here.

Coach Fennell, who developed our football team last year, arrived in town last Monday and immediately proceeded to round the players into shape.

If you must be extravagant go to one of the ten good tailors in the country. But if you want to be well dressed, to wear clothes having individuality and style and yet only pay a REASONABLE sum, wear HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX garments. The reason for this is simple—In the first instance you pay the entire cost of an artist's work. In the other this same cost is thinly spread over a number of garments. :: :: :: :: :: ::
