spiral for 45, which Cal Moorhead took on the run and advanced 20 yards. "Bill" Wray 12 through tackle, Gonia 4, Yeck 10 at end, and once more a fumble gave the ball to the "Gold and Blue." Without attempting to advance the ball, Sieber punted 45 and Moorhead dashed back 15 in nervy style. Here Gettysburg was given 10 yards for "holding," and Shearer added 2 at tackle. Barr threw Sieber for a loss, but Hill hurdled for 1st down. Lammert failed at Barr's end, and on the next line up occurred one of the most spectacular plays witnessed on Beaver Field for many a day. On a line plunge the ball shot out from the heap, and into Captain Yeckley's arms. Yeck was away like a flash, and ran 60 yards, before finally coming down on Gettysburg's one yard line. State's frenzied undergraduates in the stands were tearing things loose in great shape, as Gotwals plunged over for the second score, and Miller's trusty boot made the tally 12 to 0. A moment later time was called, and the warriors trotted off to the "track-house" amid an outburst of impartial applause. For the Gettysburg boys had shown some fine football, and made the struggle an interesting one all the time.

SECOND-HALF.

The play in the second half was like that just described, an abundance of punting, also fumbling, and good tackling. Sieber's fine punting, Yeck's 30 yard end run, Moorhead's running of the ball, as well as the sterling line plunging of Gotwals, Wray, and Putnam were the features. After 15 minutes of hard play State's men carried the ball for 70 yards and McGee went over for the third touchdown; again Miller kicked the goal, making the score 18 to 0. With 5 minutes to play State worked hard for a fourth score, Moorhead twice working the quarter-back kick in neat style, and consistent gains being made all around,—but the whistle blew with the ball on Gettysburg's 20 yard line. The score:
