

The Game.

bringing "Davy" to earth so hard, that a few minutes had to be allowed for repairs to Dickinson's big chief. It was State's ball and Gottie smashed tackle for 2, McGee 2, McGee 10, Yeck 5, Miller 2, McGee 2, Yeck 3, Gottie 3, McGee 5, Gottie 6, Yeck 6, McGee 3, then 1, and with the oval on their 15 yard line "the Red and White" warriors held valiantly for downs. Robinson opened with a 9 yard plunge, Viebahn lost 1 at center, but Salter set the Dickinson stand to rocking with a 20 yard dash around end on a "fake" tackle formation. Harry got 10 yards more, and Klingstine lost a yard at Gotwal's station. Then State was given 15 yards for Dickinson's holding and Davis was forced to punt. The huge Virginian booted the leather for 40 yards to Miller and Cramer threw him on the spot. "High" Henry then began for Old State with a beautiful 30 yard run around Cramer's end, McGee added 12 with Yeck helping grandly, McGee 4, Miller 1, McGee hurdled 5, Yeck 4 at end, and Dickinson got 20 yards for State's "holding." Henry made 4 at end, Miller 8, and McGee punted 40 to Simpson. Campbell interfered with the catch and it was Dickinson's ball with 15 yards added as a penalty. Davis failed to budge State's line, Robinson 2, and Davis had to resort to a punt. The ball went back all right enough but "Mother" Dunn, Gottie, and Putnam were there when it arrived, and blocked the kick, George McGee diving upon the rolling pigskin. It was State's ball and a grand chance to score, with only 40 yards to the coveted line. High Henry reeled off 8, Miller 2, Gottie 7, Yeck 3, Gottie 15 with grand helping by Wray and Put. With the ball on the 10 yard mark "Old Gottie" plunged for 3 with Dickinson fighting madly, and 5 yards was allowed for a flagrant "offside" play by Davis. Again Gottie tucked the leather under his arm and plunged into the mass, and he was being thrown back past the goal post, when he reached out and clasped the upright, pulling himself across the line by a magnificent effort. And everything in sight was "White and Blue"! Captain Yeckley kicked a pretty goal and the score stood 0 to 0.

Again Davis kicked off, and again he boosted the ball yards over the line, compelling McGee to kick out for State from the 25 yard mark. McGee's kick went to the middle of the field and Robinson caught and advanced 1 yard. Klingstine got 2 through tackle, and again the "fake" tackle play was worked successfully, the speedy Salter sprinting around the end for 30 yards before "High" Henry and "Mother" Dunn brought him down so hard that "Time" was called for several minutes. With the enemy on State's 33-yard line Robinson reopened hostilities with a 2 yard plunge, and the whistle blew. Score 6 to 0.

SECOND HALF.

Putnam for State kicked off to the 8 yard line and Simpson returned 10 lengths. Salter got 3 at end, Viebahn 2, then 1, with Robinson helping, and with the ball near the side line a "fake" cross back worked neatly, Viebahn tearing off 15 more yards. Robinson 2, Simpson lost 1, Viebahn gained 4, Viebahn 2, Davis 1, and then Davis was thrown for a loss, and State took the ball on downs.

Yeck hit tackle for 6, McGee 1, Yeck 1, McGee 2, and 10 yards was awarded State for Dickinson's "offside" playing, which had been very frequent all through the contest. Miller 1 at end, Wray 4, and Partridge was substituted in Miller's place. McGee 2, Yeck 3, Henry 1, Partridge no gain at end. Here
