

---

STATE COLLEGIAN

---

Published on Thursday of each week during the college year by the students of The Pennsylvania State College in the interest of the Students, Faculty, Alumni and friends of the college.
Entered at the Post Office, State College, Pa., as second class matter.

---

EDITORS

T. F. FOLTZ, '06, Chief.
F. K. BREWSTER, '07.
F. B. GARRAHAN, '07.
H. D. MASON, '07.
A. K. LITTLE, '07
R. B. MECKLEY, '08.
J. K. BARNES, '09.

BUSINESS MANAGERS.

W. J. DUMM, '06.
S. H. YORKS, '07.
B. W. SCRIBNER, '08.

---

SUBSCRIPTION.

$1.50 per year or $1.25 if paid within 30 days after date of subscription.

---

THURSDAY, NOV. 14, 1905.

---

EDITORIAL.

On account of the recent difficulties between the faculty and students the college has gained throughout this section a certain amount of notoriety which we will not attempt to prove as beneficial. It is rather interesting from our standpoint to notice the views with which different people look at the matter. It is to be regretted that certain papers resorted to the invention of much news in order to satisfy the morbid appetite of the average public. If many of us did not already know, it would not be difficult for us to pick out the Philadelphia paper which suffers from that disease commonly known as "yellow journalism." Some have made a ridiculous and ludicrous farce comedy out of the affair and others have tried to give the impression that State is attended by a lot of irresponsible youngsters still in their "teens." Last week the Scranton Tribune published an article that is an insult to the student body. It can be classed with vulgar and indecent reading matter. We are sorry for the editor of that paper. One thing we have noticed is that in many cases the writers are not possessed with a knowledge of the affair. We do not understand why any one should be so bold as to criticize unless he has at hand the facts of the case. This state of affairs exists in about every phase of human life and is responsible for much evil which exists everywhere.

Basketball.

Manager King is working hard to finish his basketball schedule. Up to date it stands as follows:

Dec. 15, Juniata, at State.
Jan. 16, Wyoming Seminary, (probably) at State.
Jan. 29, Susquehanna, at State.
Feb. 2, Lehigh, at Bethlehem.
Feb. 3, University of Pa. at Philadelphia.
Feb. 5, Lebanon Valley, (probably) at Annville.
Feb. 16, Lebanon Valley, at State.
March 2, Allegheny, at Meadville.
March 3, Geneva, at Beaver Falls.
March 5, W. U. P., at Pittsburgh.
March 6, W. V. U., at Morgantown.

Manager King is negotiating with Geneva and W. U. P. for games at State and will probably land two such dates. It will be noticed that Dickinson is not included in the schedule, it having been decided to drop basketball for this year at that institution.

Owing to the lateness of the election of assistant basketball manager, the Reserve schedule has not been completed but it will be hurried along in a very short time.

Durno, the Magician.

No more mystified or better pleased audience ever left a State College entertainment than the big crowd which slowly made its way out of the Auditorium on last Friday evening. Durno's performance was equal to the best of its kind, and the people are still wondering "how he did it." For the benefit of some of its inquiring subscribers, the Collegian wishes to state that we have Mr. Patterson's word for it that the Auditorium platform contains no trap doors.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Mr. Robert R. Gailey, of Tien-Tsin, China, addressed the students last Tuesday evening, Dec., 12 at 6.30 o'clock in the Old Chapel. Mr. Gailey was one of the mainstays of Princeton's line for three years and is recognized as probably the best center that ever wore the Orange and Black. It was his team that gave Yale the worst licking she ever received at the hands of her Tiger rivals. He is now International Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Tien-Tsin and the way in which he told of that ancient city and its inhabitants is intensely interesting.

Secretary Tinker of the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations spoke in the Auditorium on Sunday morning, and addressed a large gathering of students at the Association meeting in the evening. His talks were an inspiration to his hearers, as he is intensely earnest in his manner, and talks "straight from the shoulder."

State Secretary Miller was also present at the meetings on Sunday and helped in further organization of the Bible study department.

Mission study classes will be formed and opened soon after the Christmas holidays.

The Fifth International Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement will be held in Nashville, Tennessee, late in February, and the local Association expects to be represented by several delegates.

Junior Civil "Feed."

The Junior Civils held the first of a series of "feeds" last Saturday evening at 9 o'clock in McAllister Hall.

Caterer Housel provided a tempting repast, after which there were impromptu speeches, songs, etc. Thirty-one Civils of the original sixty were present.