

1905, The Banner Year.

sylvania, Dickinson (twice,) Franklin and Marshall, Wyoming Seminary, Williamsport and Altoona were all defeated.

Captain Hornbaker and his knights of the cinder path came next in order with three victories and one defeat. Dickinson and the Carlisle Indians were vanquished in duel meets, and at the Inter-collegiates in Philadelphia, a close second place was gained against six competitors. The dusky Redskins at Carlisle managed to gain a one-point victory over State in their opening duel meet.

Baseball comes next in order, and in this bunch of sport Captain Ray and his warriors established the finest record ever known for State, by winning 16 diamond battles out of 19 played. Princeton, West Point, Annapolis, Virginia, West Virginia, Villanova (3 games), Dickinson (2 games), George Washington, Mount St. Marys, Bloomsburg Normal, California Normal, Lebanon Valley, and Bellefonte Academy.

Fordham, Manhattan, and California Normal administered to State her only defeats, and the latter nine was later on 'trounced 10 to 0 by State's combination,—which was conceded all over the country to be the best bunch of hitters on the college diamond. With such scores West Point, 13 to 1; Virginia, 13 to 2; Annapolis, 11 to 1; George Washington, 13 to 5; Dickinson, 10 to 2, and 17 to 0,—the exceptional ability of State's nine with the stick was most vividly demonstrated; while in the Princeton game State's men opened the eyes of the Tiger very wide indeed, by uncorking nine singles, one double, four triples and a home run.

The men of the gridiron now come in for their share of glory,—and right valiantly have they upheld State's previously proud record for 1905,—by fighting manfully for "Old State" and earning 9 victories out of 12 games played; Yale, Annapolis and the Carlisle Indians being State's conquerors,—while Dickinson, W. U. P., West Virginia, Gettysburg, Villanova, Geneva, California Normal, Bellefonte Academy and Lebanon Valley College were most decisively
