To illustrate State's superiority over her opponents in all around athletics for the past year it may be noted that in these 44 athletic contests for 1905, State has totaled 863 1 2 points to 375 1-2 for her opponents. And a big share of credit for all this glorious work goes to State's coaches; "Pop" Golden, "Tom" Fennell, "Henny" Scholl, "Andy" Moscrip, "Jimmy" Sebring, "Eddie" Whitworth and the loyal student body which has encouraged all the Varsity teams at every turn. It will, indeed, be wonderful if the coming year, 1906, proves as uniformly prosperous from an athletic view point. For next June the entire basketball five will graduate, — Heaton, Kiimer, Yeckley, Foltz, Caswell and Quigley, Moorhead alone remaining; while this season's five is without the services of such a star as Captain Dunn.

In baseball the Varsity nine this spring must fill the places of a trio of splendid players; ex-Captain Ray, second base man Forkum, and outfielder Yoder. The track team has lost such stars, as ex-Captain Hornbaker, Saundeas, W. Kaiser, Barrclay and Forkum; while next fall's Varsity eleven will greatly miss such a quartet as Yeckley, McGee, Barr, and Gotwals. However, it is the "State" spirit which makes her teams victorious, hence the coming year is looked forward to as another glorious chapter in Old State's athletic history.
