

State 49—Susquehanna 23.

Last Monday evening in the College Armory our 'Varsity five had rather an easy time of it with the Susquehanna College five, although two week's lack of practice by reason of the midwinter examinations was noticeable in the team-work displayed by Captain Heaton's men. The Susquehanna boys played a hard game, and Shaffer, their captain, who stands six feet four in his basketball shoes, seemed to be a rallying point for their team. At forward for the Selinsgrove collegians Weaver did some excellent goal-shooting, while Yeckley for State was closely followed by Captain Heaton, and Kilmer, while in the first half, Moorhead's brilliant passing was noteworthy.
