

Proposed Amendments to constitution.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. (New Reading.) The officers of the Association shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Director of Athletics, and an Advisory Committee on Coaches for each Department.

Section 3. (New Reading.) The election of these officers, excepting the Director of Athletics, the Advisory Committee, and the Committees on Coaches, shall be held on the second Monday in May.

Section 4. (New.) The Physical Director of the College shall bear the official title of Director of Athletics at The Pennsylvania State College.

ARTICLE IV.

Section 5. (New.) It shall be the duty of the Director of Athletics to approve all schedules, to co-operate with the various captains and managers in the business pertinent to the advancement of athletics, to look after the physical welfare of all members of College athletic teams; to accompany and have general charge over 'Varsity teams on all trips. The Director of Athletics shall be consulted on all matters affecting the athletic policy of the College, which are not otherwise provided for.

Section 7. (New.) The Committee on Coaches, from each Department, shall consist of the Captain, the Captain-elect, the Manager, and Assistant Manager of each team, with the Director of Athletics. It shall be the duty of this Committee by and with the advice and consent of the Director of Athletics, to select coaches for the 'Varsity teams.

Section 8. (New.) Duties of the Captain. The Captain shall have the absolute direction of his team on the field during a game, shall have the decisive vote in the selection of his team, and shall act in conjunction with the Director of Athletics, and the Coach, in all matters pertaining to the welfare of his team.

Section 9. (New.) Duties of the Coach. The Coach shall have the absolute direction of all matters pertaining to the coaching of the team, except as otherwise specified; shall accompany the team on all trips, and shall act in conjunction with the Captain, and the Director of Athletics in the selection of the team, and in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the team.

House Party.

The members of the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity entertained a number of their lady friends at a house party from Saturday until Tuesday morning. Progressive euchre was the form of the entertainment Saturday evening. On Sunday Penn's Cave was visited and the trip was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The participants enjoyed a dance at the fraternity house after the basketball game on Monday evening.

Stag.

About two hundred fellows attended a "stag" dance given by the College Orchestra in McAllister Hall last Saturday evening. Exams were over, the fellows were happy, and the floor was in the "pink" of condition for dancing. Several new selections were tried and appreciated. Housel furnished refreshments during the intermission.
