

Library.

The Periodical List has been enriched and extended this year. Some additions in which the student body will be particularly interested may be mentioned. Charities, Dial, Architectural Record, Life, Athenaeum, London Illustrated News, London Weekly Times, American Homes and Gardens, Country Life in America, National Geographic Magazine, etc. Several representative religious periodicals are on file. The American Catholic Quarterly Review, Bibliotheca Sacra, Methodist Review, etc. The usual list of Dailies are accessible in the Newspaper Room, also a goodly number of County Papers. If your home or county paper is not on file, consult with the Librarian and an effort will be made to secure it.

For the special use of the modern language classes, a daily paper in German and French, and a monthly in Spanish have been secured. The Staats Zeitung (New York,) The Courier des Etats Unis, and Revista Popular will be filed on the table in the Librarian's room. The separation from the other Dailies will serve to relieve the congestion to which the Newspaper and Periodical Room has been subject.

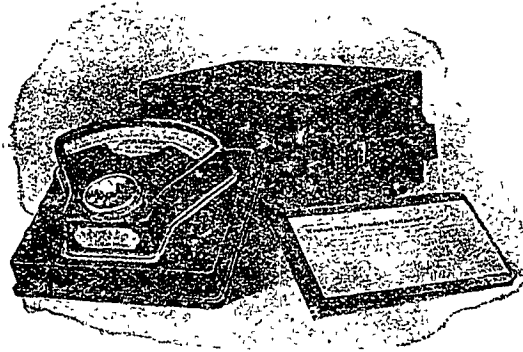

Debating Club.

The regular election of officers of the Debating Club was held on Saturday evening last and resulted as follows: President, A. K. Little; Vice President, L. B. Miller; Secretary, R. R. Dry; Treasurer, A. M. Meyers. It was decided by the club that the same team which defeated Swarthmore should defend State against Dickinson in the coming finals.

The following program has been arranged for next Saturday evening: Resolved; That United States should enact more strict immigration laws. Affirmative Palm, '09, Haven, '09. Negative, Loveland, '09, Wentzel, '08. Current Events, Garrahan, '07.
