

COLLEGE NOTES.

F. J. Kaufman, '06, is passing around the cigars. It is a girl.

M. B. King manager of the basketball team is laid up with the measles.

G. B. Hoblitzell '09 did not return to College this term.

Those who wish to take fencing lessons should report to "Pop" Golden at once.

Mr. John I. Burrell, '06, has been suffering for some time with a bealing that attacked his lower jaw bone. For about three weeks he was unable to attend to his college duties, and on Jan. 29 he went home. It is understood that he will soon go to Philadelphia to undergo an operation which will involve the removal of considerable portions of the jaw bone.

Prof. A. H. Espenshade who has been granted a leave of absence until next September, sailed for Spain last Saturday.

The committee appointed by the Yale University Council to frame new athletic measures has made the following recommendations to the faculty:—

- (1) No more tutoring of athletics at the expense of the University Athletic Association.
2. Limiting the number and expenses of the coaches for the athletic teams.
3. Absolute publicity in the accounts of the treasurer, Walter Camp.

Other recommendations favored in part by the committee are:

- (1) Giving up training tables.
2. Prohibiting athletes from other universities from playing on Yale teams after importation.
3. Cutting off all extravagance in the matter of athletic administration.
