

COLLEGE NOTES.

Many of the college organizations had their pictures taken during the past week for the La Vie.

The Nittany Lighting company has installed a number of Nernst Lamps in several of the town buildings.

W. H. Housel, caterer of the Mc-Allister dining hall has rented the new State College Hotel which will open up to the public on or about April 1st.

Soon time for that Freshman banquet.

A fellow may talk about the weather these days and still be interesting.

Prof. Reber gave several lectures on water turbines illustrated by lantern slides before the Seniors last week.

P. P. Reese, '07, is back again in our midst. He is wearing a broad smile and is receiving congratulations. As yet we have learned nothing definite of the happy event.

A. M. Ingram, ex-'07, has a responsible position as chemist with the Williamsburg Paper Co., Williamsburg, Pa,
