

COLLEGE ORBIT.

Dr. Abram M. Harris, of the Tome Institute, Port Deposit, Ind., will become the new president to the Northwestern university.

President Faunce, of Brown University, is spoken of as a likely successor of the late President Harper, of Chicago University.

Ohio State University offers a course in the art and science of making pottery. Such a course has never before been given by an institution in this country.

Andrew L. Smith, ex-full back on University of Pennsylvania, and formerly of State, has commenced libel suit against the editor of McClure's magazine for statements made in that magazine, last summer, concerning him.

At the University of Michigan an organization has recently been effected to superintend class elections and investigate graft on the part of students at the head of college publications or social functions. All departments of the college elected members to the body which is to be called the Senior Council.

The late Dr. W. R. Harper received his B. A. degree at the age of 14, and his Ph. D. degree at the age of 19. His commencement oration was delivered in Hebrew when he was but 14 years old.

Dean Wright of Yale says that the collecting together of rich students in expensive dormitories as at Yale and Harvard, puts scholarship in a second place and tends to limit social advantages to the favored few.

It is claimed that the new tutorial system at Princeton is changing, to a large extent, the students' general conversation. The frequent informal meetings in the preceptors' studies where only intellectual matter is discussed is accountable for this.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The streets of the town are soon to be lighted with Nernst lamps.

The trials for the freshman debating team are to be held Saturday night.

A branch of the Young Women's Christian Association has been organized in State College as the result of Miss Brinkerhoff's visit here last month. Miss Brinkerhoff represents the Y.W.C.A. as Student Secretary in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Cotillion Club.

The first of a series of informal dancing parties will be held in McAllister Hall on Saturday evening, March 10, from eight to twelve o'clock. This party is given under the auspices of the Cotillion Club, a recent organization of members of the teaching force of the College and their friends. The following are the officers of the Club:—Pres., W. N. Golden, Treas., H. B. Shattuck, Executive Committee, J. P. Jackson, H. R. Higley, T. E. Gravatt.

Wanted.

Someone who can appear more untidy and careless in his appearance than most of the "State" men. Inquire at any student's room for examination.

THE BORN SUITS

are the only suits which are kept

Pressed Free of Charge

Why not buy one and ALWAYS look well dressed?

C. R. STAHL, REPRESENTATIVE,
314 Main

The Accepted Styles

In Spring and Summer apparel for Men are now awaiting your selection. The smartest effects in Clothing that will be worn this coming season by the better dressed men, we now exhibit.

Sack Suits, Evening Suits, Tuxedos,
Afternoon Frocks, Top-coats,
Rain Coats. ❁ ❁ ❁

Sim, The Clothier

Distributor of Hart, Schaffner & Marx, and other high-class garments.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

MR. STAHL, "State" Representative.