

COLLEGE NOTES.

Prof. Gill spent a part of the Easter vacation at his son's home in Philadelphia.

The Thespians are practicing daily under the able training of Mrs. J. Hurley, of Buffalo.

The Cotillion Club held a dance in McAllister Hall on Wednesday evening, March 28th.

Mr. Shattuck who has been spending a few days in Washington, D.C. has returned to the College.

Miss Natalie Ayars of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting at the home of Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Ayars.

A large number of students attended the orchestra stag at McAllister Hall last Saturday evening.

The State Bee-keepers Association, of Pennsylvania, held a convention at State College on March 29th and 30th.

Miss E. B. Meek, instructor in Bacteriology in the Agricultural department during the winter term, has returned to her home in Bellefonte.

Dr. Philips, in charge of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., and Mr. E. R. Root, of the firm of A. J. Root & Co., Medina, Ohio, were entertained recently at the home of Prof. Surface.

On Saturday evening, March 24 the College Band gave a concert before a small but very appreciative audience. It is a shame more fellows did not turn out to support this worthy organization.

Prof. W. S. Hall, the head of the department of Mines and Mining of Lafayette College spent two days here last week visiting his college chum, Prof. J. H. Tudor. While here he inspected the department of the College.

At the suggestion of the upper classes the Freshmen have adopted a cap which will be of a dark green color. The object is to establish a custom by which Freshmen early in the year will be able to recognize their class mates.

It is reported that the Pharsonians will not perform during Commencement week as has been customary. Instead the Glee Club will likely appear.

At a "feed" of the Electrical Engineering Society held in McAllister Hall Tuesday evening, March 27th, the following officers were elected to serve for the spring term: Hollinger, Pres.; Kamerer, Vice Pres.; Jacobs, Sec., and Roper, Treas.

Friends of Prof. and Mrs. Espenshade have recently received communications sent from Malaga, Spain, where they will remain about six weeks longer. It will be remembered that Mr. Espenshade was granted a six months leave of absence last fall.
