

COLLEGE ORBIT.

Syracuse has organized a dramatic club, which will present its first play at the end of April. The proceeds will go towards the development of dramatic art at Syracuse.

The faculty at Chicago University has decided that foot ball must be suspended for two years, or that the radical code of rules laid down by the conference be accepted. According to this rule training table and training quarters must be abolished, a professional coach must be dispensed with, and the season must be shortened.

In the past two years out of over 22,000 students who played foot ball in sixty of the most prominent college, only 654 received injuries, eight were injured permanently, and three died from injuries received in games. This will compare very favorably with automobiling as a sport. Yet no one puts up a howl against this reckless hobby.

There is talk of Pennsylvania and Yale renewing foot ball relations next fall, especially if the ill feeling between Harvard and Pennsylvania continues.
