Bingles of all Sorts.

Manhattan cancelled.
Susquehanna played a good game.
Catcher Kilmer is chasing foul flies in old time form.
"Hi" Henry is certainly sprinting some these days.
State's nine has not yet opened up in the batting line.
Thompson in middle field is just as fast they make 'em.
"Birdie" Cree's batting and base-running is the best ever.
The Beaver Field baseball diamond is in top-notch shape now.
Captain McIlveen scored two out of State's three runs against Susquehanna.
Prophet "Andy" Lytle predicts a glorious season on diamond and track.
"Sticks" Haverstick's twirling arm is in rare shape for so early in the season.

State's team is fielding nicely. Just wait until the boys begin to hit the ball!

"Old State" is proud of her debating team. "Inter-collegiate Champions" sounds very musical!

State's relay team at Philadelphia on April 28th should carry off the prize. All of Captain Arnold's relay men are running in splendid form.

Lebanon Valley and the Johnstown Tri-Staters are the next base-ball battles, and then comes Cornell at Ithaca, April 28th.

How about a La Crosse game with Dickinson? Here is State's latest record against her old enemy;—football, two victories; baseball, two victories; basketball, two victories; track, two victories; debating, one victory.
