

"Facing the Music."

Before an appreciative audience in the Auditorium last Saturday evening the Thespians presented their three act farce comedy "Facing the Music." Without a doubt the performance was excellent and was as good as, if not better, than any appearance this organization has made. The play was appropriate and well staged.

Partridge, '07, as Mr. John Smith, assumed his part extremely well, as did also Diehl, '06, who played the part of Dick Desmond. As a lady's character, Romig, '07, was very good.

Mrs. Hurley, the trainer, deserves much credit for efficient stage directorship, the play going off without one false move. The performance shows the result of much effort and work on her part.

The Thespians performed before a crowded house at Emporium on Monday evening and left a good impression of the College at that place. Unfortunately the engagements at Clearfield and Lock Haven have been cancelled.

Bismark in speaking of Leipsic once said: "One-third of all Germany's students wastes itself in dissipation, another third kills itself by overwork, and the rest rule Europe." A sweeping statement but contains for every college man a profound truth.
