

Y.M.C.A. Notes.

Mr. V. M. McCombs, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, of New York, addressed the students at morning chapel service on Sunday and again at the Y.M.C.A. service Sunday evening. Mr. McCombs, who is under appointment to sail for Peru as a missionary in a few weeks, gave two straight forward earnest talks showing the need of technical men in the foreign field, and bringing the message of a man's greater value to the world abroad than to the home country. During his stay at the college he was interviewed by many of the students, and all were impressed with the earnestness and enthusiasm that possessed him.

Secretary Wilber was away from college over Sunday.

Two Mission Study classes have been organized, meeting every Sunday afternoon in room 273 Main. Anyone wishing to join can do so, and a hearty welcome is extended to all.

B. D. Kunkle, '07, President of the association attended the Presidents' Convention at Gettysburg last week.
