

Inter-Class Track Meet.

On Saturday next will occur the annual inter-class track meet on Beaver Field. It is expected that all classes will participate, and in order to make the events the more interesting, all men who have ever had any track or field work are urged to enter some contest.

The Junior class team is about as strong this year as last and hopes to carry off the honors, but with a large number of entries from the Freshman and Sophomore classes, many events will be doubtful. The two Senior stars, Arnold and Kaiser have not as yet decided whether to enter or not; but they are good for a number of points, and with the rest of the Senior material should make things lively.

Only one week now until the Dickinson dual meet, and every one should be interested in developing a winning team to pit against our greatest rivals.
